AN APPEAL TOVIRGINIANS

Asking Them to Subscribe to Stock in Jamestown Exposition Company.

MONEY MUST BE SECURED

Exposition Can and Must be Made a Success-Call of Interest and Patriotism.

Asking the people of Virginia to take stock in the Jamestown Exposition seems almost like asking a parent to feed his child.

There was, perhaps, not a man or woman in Tidewater who did not feel thrill of pride and satisfaction when it was decided that this exposition should be held on Hampton Roads. They pictured to themselves a magnificent World's Fair that would bring them prosperity and pleasure, and self-con-gratulation. But, like all dreams, it was a wondrous consummation, independent of processes. Now that the time has come when ways and means must be considered, they stand appalled by the vostness of the undertaking.

For the last forty years the great majority of the people of Virginia have had to struggle for more existence. Poverty has prevented them from under-Poverty has prevented them from undertaking great enterprises, and they doubt their ability to accomplish great results. But they have accomplished wonderful results, heroic results.

Contrast the run, the desolation, the lawlessness of the reconstruction days; the young men, the bone and sinew of the land, dead or erippled; those past middle age, used to ease and plenty, obliged to go to work with untrained minds and hands; to face a complete sucial and political revolution. Yes, contrast it with the peace, order, plenty, yea, the luxury of the present, and say, are not the results heroic? Have they not been as great heroes in peace as in war?

not the results heroes in peace as in war?
Yes, verily! Then let them have faith In themselves. Let the very vastness of the undertaking he an inspiration.
Nature and destiny has made the Hampton Roads an ideal place for holding a world's fair. Its temperate salt breezes make it a health resort all the vear round. It is accessible by railroad year round. It is accessible by railroad connection to every part of the Union, and to all the world by its deep, safe, roomy harbor. Prolific truck gardens. waters teeming with all the products of the sea, furnish cheap and abundant food for large crowds. Destiny has made the for large crowds. Destiny has made the Tidewater an historic center.

The writer, with a party of tourists, visited Paris during the World's Fair. They spent two days on the exposition grounds; the remaining six of their stay They spent two days on the exposition grounds; the remaining six of their stay were spent in visiting places of historic interest in the vicinity; St. Germain, St. Denis, Malmakon, Versuilles and Fontainebleau, proving that history to many is more interesting than contemporary shows. The number of patriotic Americans that visit Jamestown, Williamsburg and Yorktown increases every year. Given cheap rates, and the added interest of the exposition, thousands upon thousands will come. Several years ago, when the National Convention of Teachers met in Washington, the boats that ply between that place and Norfolk could not accommodate the crowds of bright young teachers who came to Norfolk just to see the ocean, many returning West via New York for the ocean trip on the Old Dominion line. Thus, you see, just the ocean will attract thousands from the far interior.

The Jamestown Exposition can be made a success.

a success.

Interest, patriotism, philanthropy, becken you. Citizens of Virginia, won't you heed the call? I believe you will.
